By MELLIFICIA. Friday, December 10, 1915.

WE HAVE heard much of the Montessori system and the wonderful schools of Europe. Smart matrons flocked to hear the translated talks of Dr. Maria and came away filled with wonder and admiration.

All this time the wonderful school at Fairhope, Ala., came in for not one word of comment, only a mere American woman had evolved it and its system.

Now a school for the daughters of the smart set comes to light, conducted on the same plan to fill the needs and suit the disposition of each individual student, St. Hilda's Hall, in the Shenandoah valley.

As the little tenement children in the Montessori schools may follow their bent, so may the high-bred young women of St. Hilda's, both in the college and preparatory. Nothing compulsory, no rules, no penalties.

It is a great success—proving that "the governor's lady and Judie O'Grady are sisters down under the skin."

What has worked well in the slums has gained the same victory with the children of the elite.

If a girl at St. Hilda's refuses to come up to the standard, her name is entered in the "Domesday Book"—and she can't shop nor go to a movie show for the rest of the week.

The beauty of it is that the Domesday Book is carrying virgin pages ever since the institution of the school and its system.

Past Festivities.
Mr. and Mrs. E. J. McAdams, Mr. and Mrs. H. Beard, Mr. and Mrs. G. McBride, Misses Anna McMahon, Jeannie Lee, Kathleen O'Grady, Mayme Ring, Lily Ring and Charlotte Loveley and Mrs. M. Moran made up a box party at the Krug theater yesterday evening.

Miss Gertrude Frost entertained informally at her home Monday evening for the "Adah" Pleasure club of South Side. The rooms were decorated attractively throughout, suggestive of the Christmas holidays, and the usual form of entertaining, which in cards, was changed to sewing. Luncheon was served at small tables and covers were laid for:

Misses— Mary Horn, Helen Burdort, Belle Burdort, Gertrude Armstrong, Lillian Steinberg, Emma Espersen.
Misses— Harriet Steinberg, Leonora Horn, Laura Kraus, Florence Frost, Gertrude Frost, Mrs. Frost.

Informal Tea.
Mrs. A. C. Wakeley entertained informally at her home at tea this afternoon for Mrs. Edward Crain of Springfield, O., and Mrs. W. F. Allen and Mrs. Allen's sister, Mrs. Hishop. Mrs. Crain was formerly Miss Emily Wakeley.

Future Events.
The philosophy and ethics department of the Omaha Woman's club will give a luncheon complimentary to Dr. Winifred Hyde of the University of Nebraska at the Hotel Loyd Monday at 12:30 p. m. Reservations should be made to the leader of the department, Mrs. S. A. Collins, by Sunday evening.

For Miss Stewart.
Miss Elizabeth Bruce will be the hostess at this evening's affair in honor of Miss Elizabeth Davis' popular guest, Miss Marjorie Stewart of Muncie, Ind. Miss Bruce will entertain at an Orpheum party and supper at the Hotel Pontenelle. Those present will be:

Misses— Marjorie Stewart, Mollora Davis, Elizabeth Davis, Elizabeth Bruce, Robert Burns, Gerald Wharton, Ben Warren, Ware Hall.

Original Cooking Club.

Debutante Hostess.
Miss Marion Towle, a debutante of this season, will entertain this evening at dinner to eight guests at her home in honor of Miss Genevieve Barkislow, who has come from Denver to live in Omaha, and Miss Phyllis Luman of Salt-Lake City, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. C. Louis Meyer.

Engagement Announced.
Mr. and Mrs. Ben Glick of Chicago, formerly of Omaha, announce the engagement of their daughter, Helen, to Mr. Will Marks of Chicago, son of Rabbi Edward Marks. The wedding will be celebrated Sunday at the Standard club, Rabbi Fischer, assisted by Rabbi Marks, officiating.

Franco-Belgian Relief.
The Franco-Belgian Relief society met this afternoon with Mrs. Arthur Crittenden Smith. The members of the society are finishing peasant underjackets for the refugees. There is still an urgent call for new materials, especially woolen, and more old kit gloves are being collected. The members of the circle are:

Misses— Hilda Hammer, Margaret Bruce, Elizabeth Bruce.

Surprise Dance.
The officers of Dundee Friday Evening Dancing club will give a surprise to the members at the dance of this evening, given at Dundee hall. The hosts and hostesses of the occasion will be Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lieben and Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Swartz. The entertainment committee expect twenty couples. The next dance of the club will be given at Dundee hall, New Year's eve.

Celebrate Wedding Anniversary.
Mr. and Mrs. John Panuska celebrated their twentieth wedding anniversary, Wednesday evening at their home. Those present were:

Mezames and Mezames— Panuska, Anis, Vondra, Vank.
Mezames— John Panuska, John Kovsky, Margaret Miskell, Anna Panuska, Anna Vank.

Friday Bridge Meets.
Mrs. Ben Wood was hostess this afternoon at the meeting of the Friday Bridge Luncheon club. Miss Elizabeth Stewart of Muncie was the out-of-town guest. The table was decorated with Mrs. Ward roses. The members are:

Mezames— Ben Wood, John P. Webster.
Misses— Louise Dinning, Mollora Davis, Mary Burkley, Elizabeth Bruce, Gladys Peters, Katherine Thummel.

Church Entertainment.
A reception to the new members will be given this evening in the parlors of the Dundee Presbyterian church, with a social meeting to follow the formal presentations. The church is planning affairs for the winter to bring its members into closer touch with one another.

Vassar Club Meets.
The Vassar club met this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Arthur Gulou. Each member will give a dressed doll this Christmas to the Child Saving Institute (Continued on Page Fifteen Column One.)

SALOON KEEPERS SUED FOR THE DEATH OF RANDALL

Mrs. Edna Randall, widow of the late Charles Randall, who died by gas asphyxiation in his home, 2411 Lake street, August 10, 1912, and five children are suing three saloonkeepers for $5,000 damages in District Judge Troup's court. The plaintiff alleges Randall became intoxicated by drinking liquor sold to him by Sam P. Christensen, Jerry J. Sullivan and Charles Stors, and that his death was caused as a result.

OLD-TIME COLD CURE—DRINK TEA

Get a small package of Hamburg Brest Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teaspoon full at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.—Advertisement.

Earnest Stormes Badly Beaten by a Lone Highwayman

Earnest Stormes, thirty-fourth and K streets, South Side, was knocked unconscious and badly beaten about the body by a lone highwayman who attacked him in the Burlington railroad yards about 7 o'clock Thursday evening. The bandit jumped from behind a box car as Stormes passed and riddled him with two blows. Stormes fell to the ground unconscious and the robber went through his pockets. A few minutes later John Skarda, night yardmaster, discovered Stormes very weak from loss of blood. He assisted the latter to his home and the matter was reported to the police.

Jewelry Values
Value is a much abused word, especially in some of its uses as applied to jewelry. A thing is useful only so long as it wears and gives service, and especially so is an article of jewelry. And upon its quality depends the esteem in which it is held by the recipient. We have consistently adhered to the policy of maintaining excellence in our wares. A gift from Edholm's carries with it a prestige and guarantee of quality, to both the giver and the recipient.

SOCIETY GIRLS SELLING CANDY

Assisting at the Big Christmas Fair of the Churches in The Bee Building Lobby.

COOKERY SALE FOR SATURDAY

The candy booth of St. Barnabas church, which is holding its Christmas sale in the court of the Bee building for two days, is the most popular spot of the whole fair. Miss Louise Dinning and Miss Alice Jaquith, two of the fairest girls of the younger set, preside at the candy booth. That is the reason. Miss Dorothy Black is in charge of the sale of dolls and disposed of a goodly number of them before the sale was half started. There will be a special cookery sale Saturday, when all kinds of goodies will be on hand. Mrs. W. H. Jones, president of the guild, is chairman of the arrangements and she is being assisted by Mrs. Lloyd Holapple, wife of the rector of St. Barnabas; Mrs. W. R. Bowen, Mrs. A. K. Klein, Mrs. C. W. Lyman, Mrs. A. P. (Continued on Page Fifteen Column One.)

This Week We Will Give Away Julia Gretchen and Mary

Julia is a very beautiful doll. Her bright eyes and rosy cheeks tell you that she is always cheerful, contented and happy, and makes everyone around her feel that way, too. You will be very happy if you win her.

Gretchen and Mary are for second and third prizes, and are not dressed like Julia, but they are very nice dollies, and will please you.

These dolls will be given free to the little girls under 12 years of age, who bring or mail us the largest number of doll pictures cut out of the Daily and Sunday Bee before 4 p. m. Saturday, December 11.

Julia's picture will be in The Bee every day this week. Cut them out and ask your friends to save the pictures in their paper for you, too. See how many pictures of Julia you can get, and be sure to turn them in to The Bee office before 4 p. m. Saturday, December 11.

If you don't win one of these Dollies perhaps you can get one last week. Only one doll will be given to any one person.

You Can See Julia at The Bee Office
